Rehearse, Rewind, Repeat: Photography, Video, and Performance calls for work that examines the dialogue between the still and moving image and performance. Qualifying work may include video (single channel or installation), traditional and digital prints. All work must incorporate some photographic or video element.

Eligibility: Open to all artists age 18 and above using photographic media. All subjects and styles are eligible. You should submit three digital images or video to be considered for the exhibition.

Exhibition: This exhibition is organized by the photography program at the Ohio University School of Art. In its sixth decade, the photography program at Ohio University is the oldest degree-granting program in photography at a major university in the country. Its legacy stems from the historically renowned Clarence White School of Photography in New York, which was re-established here in 1948 by his son, Clarence White, Jr. Since then, it has produced a legion of successful alumni who are leaders in the field, and whose honors include Guggenheim Foundation and National Endowment for the Arts Fellowships. This exhibit will bring a diverse cross sampling of national and international photographic contemporary photographic art to the communities of the city of Athens, Ohio. This exhibition will be held at the Ohio University Art Gallery, a 2500 square foot exhibition space, which is located on the Athens Campus of Ohio University in Seigfried Hall. Gallery hours are Monday through Saturday, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Media: All work must incorporate some photographic media, but it may also include other media (2-D and 3-D works).

Catalog: Funds permitting, a full-color catalog of the exhibition will be produced and each selected artist will receive one copy of this catalog gratis when her or his work is returned.

Accepted Work: The decision of the juror is final. All artists will be notified of their status by November 13, 2009.

Juror: Kelli Connell received an MFA from Texas Woman's University (2003). Her body of work entitled "Double Life" has been widely received and included in numerous national solo and group exhibitions. Her work is in the collections of Microsoft; Los Angeles County Museum of Art; Columbus Museum of Art; Museum of Fine Arts, Houston; Museum of Contemporary Photography; and The Dallas Museum of Art. Recent publications include "Photo Art: The New World of Photography" published by Aperture; "Vitamin Ph: New Perspective in Photography" published by Phaidon; and "MP3: Midwest Photographers' Publication Project" co-published by Aperture and The Museum of Contemporary Photography. Connell teaches at Columbia College Chicago.

Receiving and Returning Work: All accepted work must be ready to install and be shipped to arrive or hand-delivered between December 7 and 18, 2009 to Ohio University

Art Gallery, 528 Seigfred Hall, Athens, OH 45701. Shipping work to the gallery will be the responsibility of the artist and return shipping will be covered by the exhibition fund. Work will be returned within three weeks after deinstallation, or may be picked up by the artist from the exhibition coordinator Elizabeth Dobson at an arranged time (see contact information below in “Entry Guidelines”).

Installation: All accepted work will be installed at the discretion of the juror and exhibition coordinator. Exhibited work cannot be removed from the gallery before the close of the exhibition. The exhibition coordinator reserves the right to refuse work that does not meet exhibition standards.

Liability and Sales: Every reasonable care will be taken with artwork. A loan form with information regarding insurance will be provided to all participants. All sale money goes to the artist; the gallery takes no commission.
